The purpose of the Certification of Finances is to help colleges and universities obtain complete and accurate information about the funds available to international applicants who want to study in the United States. Strict government regulations, rising education costs, and economic conditions have made verifying the financial resources of international applicants essential. Institutions do not have the option of deciding whether to verify the financial resources of their international applicants; financial verification must be made prior to institutional issuance of a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019).

This form is designed to standardize financial information provided by applicants to colleges, universities, and U.S. consuls. By completing this form and returning it to the college or university requiring it, an applicant, if admitted, may obtain that college’s authorization and issuance of a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019). If parents and/or sponsors are unable to obtain a bank official’s verification, it is recommended that institutions forward a copy of the International Student Financial Aid Application to the family for completion. The institution should attach a copy of this certification to the Certificate of Eligibility. U.S. consuls scrutinize the statements of financial resources given by nonimmigrant visa applicants. This certification will help such officials make their decisions and expedite visa issuance.

Please complete the boxes on the second page of the form (section 8) with estimates in US dollars of how much you and your family can provide EACH YEAR you will attend college. The total amount in each column must be equal to, or more than the current annual cost of attendance ($79,350), the details of which are outlined below. Applicants who cannot show $79,350 available for each year they will attend college should apply for need-based financial aid. Please note that our financial aid funds for international students are very limited.

Once complete, either scan and upload the form by using your DEISconnect portal (admissions.brandeis.edu/status) or fax it to the Brandeis Office of Admissions at 1-781-736-3536. Applications cannot be considered until complete financial information has been submitted. Supporting documents (bank statements, income statements, promissory notes) can be submitted but must accompany a completed Certification of Finances form.

The space below is for optional use by issuing institutions for listing student’s expected annual budget.

Total Estimated Cost of Attendance 2019-2020:

- $55,340 Tuition
