Learning Goals for the MSF program:

- Students will have a firm grasp of the key concepts of investment in financial markets.
- Students will develop financial skills necessary to formulate corporate strategies and financial decisions in a competitive environment.
- Students will have a fundamental understanding of financial accounting and corporate reporting.
- Students will acquire fundamental knowledge of bond and fixed income derivative markets.
- Students will acquire a range of quantitative and analytical skills.
- Students will acquire the communications skills needed to present their case effectively in a business environment.
- Student will complete a work practicum, applying the concepts learned in the classroom
- Students will gain specialized knowledge and skills through the completion of a concentration relevant to their degree.