Greetings from the President . . .

Has the summer RUSHED by too QUICKLY for you? Between the Olympic RACES and the Political RACES is there too much emphasis on contest and winning? Time to SLOW down, appreciate the upcoming cooler weather, and RELAX with a Brandeis activity. At a LEISURELY pace you can visit new places, greet new faces, and fill in some new spaces on your fall calendar. Reunite with familiar study group buddies and make some new friends in one of the many activities we have to offer.

BNC . . . it’s a mind, body, spirit experience with something for everyone’s SPEED.
(but don’t be too SLOW in signing up!)

See you there,

~~~ Judy Silver

Guest Speaker ~ Thomas J. Loughman, PhD, is the Wadsworth Atheneum’s eleventh Director and C.E.O., effective February 1, 2016, just months after the institution completed a major renovation. Tom recently served as the Associate Director of Program and Planning at the Clark Art Institute in Williamstown, Massachusetts, where he worked for seven years, as well as in a variety of curatorial, research and teaching roles in the field.

Prior to the Clark, Tom worked as curator of European art and as assistant to the director for exhibitions at the Phoenix Art Museum, and was a National Endowment for the Arts curatorial fellow in the department of prints, drawing, and photographs at the Philadelphia Museum of Art. Tom is a scholar of Italian art and has lectured and published particularly on the art, architecture, patronage, and urbanism in early Renaissance Florence. He earned his AB from Georgetown University where he was a George F. Baker Scholar; an MA from Williams College; and a PhD from Rutgers University, where he was a Fulbright Scholar and a Kress Fellow.

He lives in the Hartford area with his wife and two daughters.

COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECT ~ BNC is sponsoring the Kosher Food Pantry of Jewish Family Services of Greater Hartford. JFS provides non-perishable Kosher food products throughout the year to all and especially, but not only, breakfast foods for children during the summer months. Also needed are paper goods, such as toilet paper and paper towels. We ask our 2016 Fall Luncheon attendees to do a mitzvah for the Kosher Food Pantry and yourself by bringing a bag or two of these items to the Luncheon. All items must be in carrying bags.

Hosts: Tom and Marny Stevens, 14 Northeast Road, Farmington
Questions: Bob & Linda Moss ~ doctorbob2@comcast.net; 860-521-2734

8) Friday, November 18 - Legal Puzzlers Using the Brandeis syllabus "21 Legal Puzzlers: What is a crime?" by Andreas Teuber, Associate Professor of Philosophy, participants are given a case(s) each session where the facts of the case are understandable and easy to grasp but difficult to resolve. Study group members are invited to reach a consensus about how best to decide that case or set of cases after deliberating among themselves with the guidance of Professor Teuber's enlightening questions. Contained in each puzzler is all the information needed to brainstorm and reach a conclusion about these conundrums in the law. The jury is limited to 14 (12 jurors plus two alternates) and will decide how often and what time they will meet. Bring your lunch to the planning session 12:30 PM at the home of Miriam Miller. Questions: Miriam Miller ~ bncmiriam631@gmail.com; 860-561-3342

Study groups, interest groups and tours are the biggest attractions for our members and are important fund raisers for our chapter. A small registration fee is charged for each activity to raise money and support Brandeis University libraries and other programs. Members will pay a maximum total of $50 for registration fees for activities (excluding the biannual chapter luncheons) from July 1, 2016 - June 30, 2017, our fiscal year. This does not cover guest fees, pay in advance or admission fees, or materials fees. Members of On-Going groups still need to send in a registration form and fee. A non-member may attend one On-Going group once for free and up to two One-Time Activities (space permitting) throughout our fiscal year as a paying Guest for $10 per activity, plus any materials or admission fees. To partake of additional activities, one must join our chapter of the Brandeis National Committee.

Questions about activities: Amy Silverman ~ brandeishartford@gmail.com

Cancellation policy: Your check (not a phone call) is your reservation. If a cancellation is necessary, the member should notify Amy Silverman. No refund will be given. Monies paid remain with the chapter and may be taken as a donation by the registrant. If there is a waiting list for the event, Amy will notify the first person on the list. If there is no waiting list, the paid member may offer the reservation to a substitute. The substitute can reimburse the paid member directly.
