The BNC Ethnic Lunch Bunch is celebrating the season with a SUMMER SPLURGE on August 22nd at one of Old Town Alexandria’s best -- Restaurant Eve, at 110 S. Pitt St., Alexandria 22314, (703) 706-0450. This charming restaurant is housed in a converted late 1800’s historic warehouse, and was created by a Dublin chef and his wife based on Irish hospitality and supreme ingredients. The menu is now considered to be “Nouveau American,” and Tom Sietsema, food critic for the Washington Post, describes the food as “both straightforward and sophisticated”.

A foodie-worthy three course “Green Garden Lunch,” showcasing herbs and produce from both the Restaurant Eve garden and local farmers, will be served for $28 (plus tax, tip, and beverage cost) and will include varied and delectable vegetarian and non-vegetarian options. (For those familiar with customary prices at this restaurant, this is a deal!) Covered parking is available directly across the street for $2.50 per hour. We hope you will join us on August 22nd at 11:30 a.m. for this special lunch in a special place!

Please RSVP to Rosalind Singer at RDSinger@Starpower.net by August 16th (firm date). As is our custom, we will each be donating five dollars to BNC. And stay tuned for other BNC ethnic lunch bunch events in the coming season, which will resume at our usual modest/moderate costs.

Dr. Robert Hitlin will speak on

Polling in 2016 Presidential Elections:
Interpreting Reliability, Shortcomings of Polls

Date: Monday, September 26, 2016
Time: 3:00 pm to 4:30 pm
Place: Arlington Central Library

Millions of dollars are spent on polls in modern political campaigns. The public results of polls drive the coverage of radio, television, newspapers, social media, and cable commentators. This lecture will help you understand what the polls really mean, what their shortcomings might be, and how to interpret them. The lecture will be divided into three parts: 1) How are polls done? How is sampling done? What do they cost? 2) Are polls reliable? Are some companies better than others? Are primaries easier or harder to poll in than general elections? 3) What are polls used for in a campaign? Is there more than just the horse-race aspect?

Dr. Robert Hitlin has appeared frequently on radio and television as a commentator on elections and politics. He is the author of the book HOW TO EXPLAIN ALMOST EVERYTHING: The Power of Probability in Everyday Life. As President of Robert Hitlin Research Associates, Inc. he has directed and conducted hundreds of research projects for organizations in private industry, national associations, and federal, state and local governments. He has taught research techniques and statistics, and conducted sample surveys, statistical research projects, and facilitated focus groups for more than 45 years. He was a professor of Political Science at American University and Georgetown University where he was voted the “Teacher of the Year” by the graduating seniors. He has a B.A. from Brooklyn College and a Ph.D. in Political Science from Vanderbilt University.

Registration: No registration required. This event is free and all are welcome

Directions: The Arlington Central Library is located at 1015 N. Quincy Street between Washington Boulevard and Fairfax Drive. Parking is free at the Library or take Metro to Virginia Square on the Orange line.

This program is jointly sponsored by Encore Learning and the Arlington Public Library. For details, call the library at 703-228-5996 or call Encore Learning at 703-228-2144. See www.encorelearning.net for more information on special events, clubs and academic courses for those over 50.
2016 - 2017 BNC SESSIONS

In addition to Study Groups, we offer several "Special Sessions" that can be one or a few meetings. The usual cost is a $10.00 donation to BNC, but if there is a cost for lunch or admission to an event, then the donation to BNC is $5.00. These activities are a great way to spend time with your BNC friends without having to commit to an ongoing group. There will be a sign-up poster at the Showcase for members to show interest. If you won't be able to come to the Showcase (Thursday, September 8th), please let me (swagner222@cs.com) or Barbara (beegem@comcast.net) know which Session(s) pique your interest.

Thanks,
Sandy & Barbara

Here are the events we already have planned - more may be added:

SCRABBLE

Do the words XI, ZA, JO and QAT mean anything to you? If so, you are a Scrabble maven. Please join us for an afternoon of Scrabble at the home of Annette Paley in Falls Church. Challenge your brain, enjoy refreshments and good company. Last years players had a wonderful time! Annette will be hosting two game days - in the Fall and in the Spring. The first date is Thursday, November 10 at 1:00 p.m. The cost for fun, food and friends will be a $10.00 donation to BNC.

ETHNIC LUNCH

Once again, Rosalind Singer has agreed to research and host our popular Ethnic Lunch Bunch. We’ve sampled Afghan, Korean, Ethiopian and Irish cuisines – among others. Our taste testers are hard at work sampling local restaurants to delight us. We usually meet on the 3rd or 4th Monday of the month. And, we always pay by separate check.

THEATER

"GOOD NEWS!!! Because so many of you participated in the 2015/2016 BNC theater outings events, our year was a great success. Those of you who attended "Proof " at 1st Stage Theater in April, enjoyed an excellent play, a delicious reception and interesting talk back. We also saw "Caroline or Change" in May at the Creative Cauldron with a thoroughly engaging talk back after the play. We are looking at the upcoming season of performances offered in our theater-rich area and will be notifying you of our selection. We hope previous attendees will join us again next year and other members will also join in to these fun and interesting days

NORA EPHRON REDUX

When Nora Ephron died in 2012, many of us felt as though we had lost a friend. As a result, we formed a Study Group the next year, “Tribute to Nora”. We gathered at members' homes, read Nora articles aloud, and ate member-prepared goodies from recipes created by Nora. We even took a trip to New York to see Nora’s posthumous play, 'Lucky Guy.'
All this is background to announce a Session - Nora Redux. Nora's son has produced a documentary based on her life called 'Everything Is Copy.' We will watch the film and discuss it afterwards. Original members will surely want to participate, but everyone is invited to join us to pay tribute to this extraordinary woman. We're planning a March meeting - exact date to be announced.

ARTS CLUB OF WASHINGTON

We are planning another visit to one of our favorites - the Arts Club of Washington. The Arts Club is housed in a historical landmark that was home to such famous men as James Monroe and Henry Clay (not at the same time). We will be treated to a tour of the building followed by a musical concert and lunch. The concert begins promptly at noon followed by a three-course lunch at 12:30.

The club is located in the former residence of James Monroe and the address is 2017 I (Eye) Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. There are private parking garages nearby or the orange, blue and silver metro is 2 ½ blocks away exiting at Farragut West at 18th and I (Eye) Streets, N.W.

Please join us for this most enjoyable afternoon. The cost is $30 per person along with a $5.00 donation to BNC. This event is limited to 23.

CRAFTY LADIES

Let's get those creative juices flowing, people! Four of our members will be demonstrating their crafts, and inviting hands-on participation at four Sessions:

Pat Britz designs and creates beautiful greeting cards, and will share her expertise (and tools) with us.

Barbara Gems knits adorable flowers that are suitable for pins to adorn hats, bags, and clothing. Basic knitting skill is necessary.

Annette Paley also makes wonderful greeting cards, and many of you have seen her paper creations.

Sandy Wagner loves to dabble in paint, and will bring her boxful of fabric paint so y'all can decorate scarves, t-shirts, and maybe grandchildren gifts.

Hope one or all of these appeals to you. It's fun and relaxing to get your hands and minds working on things you get to take home!

THEATER MAVEN DAVID SIEGEL

We are delighted that theater maven David Siegel will speak to us once again about the local theater scene. David is a freelance theater reviewer whose work appears in the Connection newspapers, the Fairfax Times and others. He is a judge in the Helen Hayes Awards program and been associated with theater in the Washington DC area for over 30 years. Save the last Sunday in April for this fascinating afternoon.
To Barbara Gems: Continue your swift recovery from your hip replacement surgery!

Wedding Bells rang on Saturday, July 9th, 2016 for Justin Laurence Higgins, son of Scott and Sharon Higgins. Justin’s bride is Caitlin Anne Weber, daughter of Donna and Dennis Weber. The ceremony was held in the Tea Room at Gambrill State Park, near Frederick, Maryland. Kathy Kiely, the former managing editor of the Sunlight Foundation’s Reporting Group, officiated. Caitlin, who is a graphic Designer, worked at the Sunlight Foundation for several years as creative director. The Sunlight Foundation, which takes its name from Mr. Justice Brandeis’ famous quote about sunlight being the best disinfectant, is a national, non-partisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to transparency in government at all levels.

We are sorry to have to report the passing of beloved members of Brandeis.

Judy Weiss, a long time Brandeis member, passed away on Sunday, July 17, 2016. The funeral service was held at Temple Rodef Shalom, followed by burial at King David Memorial Gardens. Donations in Judy’s memory may be made to Temple Rodef Shalom. Judy Weiss is most fondly remembered by Judie Weiss. Over the years, the two enjoyed sharing funny stories of being confused with one another due to the similarity of their names.

Harriet Beckman, a longtime Brandeis member and a past chapter co-president, passed away on Wednesday, July 13, 2016. A memorial service was held at Temple Rodef Shalom. Donations in Harriet’s memory may be made to the Temple Rodef Shalom Rabbi’s Discretionary Fund, or a charity of your choice.
In case you have not previously paid your dues for the current year, which began in July, we remind you again that The Brandeis National committee has mailed renewal forms to all of us. Please return them, with checks, in the enclosed envelopes. If you no longer have this bill, please use the form below and send it to Diane with your check. Or, renew online at http://giving.brandeis.edu/bncrenew. Individual memberships cost $60, while a couple residing at the same address can join for $100.00. Thank you!

Mission Statement

Brandeis National Committee is dedicated to providing philanthropic support to Brandeis University, a distinguished liberal arts and research university founded by the American Jewish community. Its membership is connected to the university through fundraising and through activities that reflect the values on which the university was founded: academic excellence, social justice, nonsectarianism and service to the community.
