Modern Art

Peter R. Kalb, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor of Contemporary Art & Cynthia L. and Theodore S. Berenson Chair
Department of Fine Arts, Brandeis University

Monday through Friday: 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

June 11 to 15, 2007

Just the basics.....

Peter Kalb, Ph.D., the newest member of the Brandeis Fine Arts faculty will provide a broad view of moments in modern art. Using highlights and contrasting case studies of artists as a basis each morning, he will play off the examples and discuss a broader range of topics and artists. Among the artists he will highlight, expect:

Edouard Manet
Henri Matisse
Willem DeKooning
Jackson Pollock
Andy Warhol
Cindy Sherman

Peter R. Kalb is Assistant Professor of Professor on the Cynthia L. and Theodore S. Berenson Chair of Contemporary Art, in the Department of Fine Arts at Brandeis University. He is currently writing a book, Art at the Turn of the Millennium, that examines transformations in the history of contemporary art (forthcoming from Laurence King Publishers and Prentice Hall, 2008). Kalb served as revising author of H.H. Arnason's History of Modern Art Fifth Edition (Prentice Hall, 2005), wrote High Drama: The New York Cityscapes of Georgia O'Keeffe and Margaret Bourke-White (Midmarch Arts Press, 2003) and has contributed to Art in America. He earned his PhD from the Institute of Fine Arts, New York University.
