

In the words of students:

“Professor Flesch is unequalled in his ability to promote interest in a subject.”

“He is wonderful at explaining complicated issues with clarity and making them understandable to everyone.”

“He is a brilliant articulate man who brings out the best in his students.”

“His grasp of the material is astounding. I have often left a lecture with chills because of the stunning connections, analogies, comparisons, and understanding that Professor Flesch teaches us.”