

Students who nominated him for this award have said:

“You know you will emerge from the class not only a more adept writer but a better thinker. He places more of the emphasis on each individual’s growth and expression than any other professor I have had, giving thoughtful consideration to every student’s opinion and always pushing us to take our logic one step further. He accommodates all learning styles, and even the quietest student is likely to find himself participating by the end of the semester, thanks to thought-provoking discussion.”

“Professor Gaskins takes genuine interest in his student’s lives and futures. He has given me some of the best advice about my future that I have ever received.”

“Professor Gaskins is an outstanding lecturer. He has the ability to explain abstract and complicated material in a clear and cohesive manner while engaging students.”

“He always has time to help a student in need. Professor Gaskins is an inspiring educator who has had a profound impact on my education.”
