

In the words of students:

“Prof. King is quite simply a brilliant lecturer. He combines a wealth of knowledge on the subject area with an eloquent style of presentation. He is able to convey challenging and complex lessons to the class in a manner that is easy to follow and piques our interest. He takes a genuine interest in the students, the class, and the subject area.”

“He leads fantastic discussions and respects our ideas while pushing us to go further.”

“His rigor and generosity as a scholar and teacher are unparalleled.”

“Tom King is one of those professors every student dreams of having in college. He is energetic, brilliant, funny, witty and respectful.”
