

Students who nominated him for this award have said:

“He was incredibly knowledgeable, patient, encouraging and caring about our progress in his class. Even in a class of over one hundred people, he took the time to learn our names and we got to see how passionate he was about the subject. Professor Hickey truly went above and beyond...offering insight and a vast amount of support every step of the way. As a professor, mentor and friend. Tim Hickey shows his love for his students and teaching in all that he does”

“Simply the best, listens and makes learning more fun.”
