Reversing the Gaze: African(ist) Perspectives on Europe and Beyond

A series of panel discussions with Brandeis faculty and graduate student experts

Panel I: Migration
Wednesday, January 24

Panel II: Civil Society/Human Rights
Tuesday, March 13

Panel III: Political Economy; Trade; Cooperation; Climate Justice
Wednesday, March 28

*All panel discussions will be held in Rapaporte Treasure Hall, Goldfarb Library from 12-2 PM

RSVP @ brandeis.edu/cges

Co-sponsored by:
- The Center for German and European Studies
- The Department of African and Afro-American Studies (AAAS)
- Office of the Dean of Arts and Sciences
- Brandeis University Office for Diversity, Equity & Inclusion
- Sankofa Community Conversations on Diversity, Equity & Inclusion (Heller School)
- Center for Global Development and Sustainability (Heller School)
- International and Global Studies (IGS)
- Graduate Program in Coexistence and Conflict (Heller School)
- Brandeis University African Forum (Graduate)