email: yznkhan@brandeis.edu

Office Hours: Mondays and Thursdays 1-2 p.m.

Prerequisite:

Greek 10 or equivalent.

Required Text:

H. Hansen & G. M. Quinn, Greek: An Intensive Course (2nd revised ed., 1992).

If you are a student with a documented disability on record at Brandeis University and wish to have a reasonable accommodation made for you in this class, please contact me a.s.a.p.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Attendance is expected at all meetings of the course, and in the case of any unexcused absence you will receive a 0 on the ledger for participation.

ASSESSMENT

Your grade will be based on: attendance, including active participation (25%); a mid-term exam (25%); and a final exam (50%).

On the exams you will be asked to analyse grammar and to translate from Greek into English and from English into Greek.

There are no 'make-ups' for exams, except in cases of documented emergencies.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Academic integrity is central to the mission of educational excellence at Brandeis University. Each student is expected to submit work completed independently, except when assignments specifically authorize collaborative effort.

Violations of University policies on academic integrity, described in Section 3 of 'Rights and Responsibilities', may result in failure in the course or on the assignment, or in suspension or dismissal from the University. If you are in doubt about the instructions for any assignment in this course, it is your responsibility to ask for clarification.

All instances of cheating or other alleged dishonesty will be reported to the Office of Campus Life for possible referral to the Student Judicial System. The adjudication process is also outlined in your handbook, 'Rights and Responsibilities'. A record of any offence remains in a student's disciplinary file in the Office of Student Affairs throughout his or her career at Brandeis.
