Behind the Scenes
with the Rose Art Museum at the 2017 Venice Biennale

Friday, Oct. 28 | 4:30 pm | Mandel Center for Humanities G12

Come listen to Christopher Bedford, Director of the Baltimore Museum of Art and Professor of the Practice at Brandeis University, speak about the Venice Biennale, the most important art exhibition in the contemporary art world. Held every odd year, the Venice Biennale is the oldest and original biennale that all others are modeled after. The Rose Art Museum has the great honor to host the internationally-acclaimed artist, Mark Bradford, at this art exhibition in 2017, getting world-wide recognition for both the Rose Art Museum and Brandeis University. Don’t miss this exciting talk!

This is a once in a lifetime opportunity!
