THEASTER GATES
Artist, social activist, innovative urban community builder

A CURSORY SERMON ON ART AND THE CITY

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23, 2016 | 4:00 PM
WASSERMAN CINEMATHEQUE | SACHAR INTERNATIONAL CENTER

Fred and Rita Richman Distinguished Fellow in Public Life: Richman Fellows are individuals active in public life whose contributions have had a significant impact on improving American society, strengthening democratic institutions, advancing social justice or increasing opportunities for all citizens to realize and share in the benefits of this nation. The fellowship was created by Brandeis alumna Carol Richman Saivetz ’69, along with her children, Michael Saivetz ’97 and Aliza Saivetz Glasser ’01, in honor of Carol’s parents, Fred and Rita Richman. The award is funded by the generosity of the Richman and Saivetz families. The Richman Fellowship is hosted by the International Center for Ethics, Justice and Public Life on behalf of the Office of the President. brandeis.edu/richmanfellow | ethics@brandeis.edu
THEASTER GATES
Artist, social activist, innovative urban community builder

A CURSORY SERMON ON ART AND THE CITY
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23, 2016 | 4:00 PM
WASSERMAN CINEMATHEQUE | SACHAR INTERNATIONAL CENTER

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23, 2016
4:00 PM
WASSERMAN CINEMATHEQUE | SACHAR INTERNATIONAL CENTER

Fred and Rita Richman Distinguished Fellow in Public Life: Richman Fellows are individuals active in public life whose contributions have had a significant impact on improving American society, strengthening democratic institutions, advancing social justice or increasing opportunities for all citizens to realize and share in the benefits of this nation. The fellowship was created by Brandeis alumna Carol Richman Savetz ’69, along with her children, Michael Savetz ’97 and Aliza Savetz Gasser ’01, in honor of Carol’s parents, Fred and Rita Richman. The award is funded by the generosity of the Richman and Savetz families. The Richman Fellowship is hosted by the International Center for Ethics, Justice and Public Life on behalf of the Office of the President. brandeis.edu/richmanfellow | ethics@brandeis.edu

THE INTERIM PRESIDENT OF BRANDEIS UNIVERSITY
CORDIALLY INVITES YOU
TO ATTEND THE 2015-16
RICHMAN DISTINGUISHED
FELLOW IN PUBLIC LIFE
AWARD CEREMONY AND
LECTURE HONORING
THEASTER GATES