Tzvi Abusch (MW 2:30-3:20)
Prerequisite: HBRW 122a or b, NEJS 10a, or permission of the instructor.
An in-depth study of the Hebrew text of Genesis, with particular attention to the meaning, documentary sources, and Near Eastern background of the accounts of creation and origins of human civilization in chapters one to eleven, and of the patriarchal narratives, especially those about Abraham.

NEJS 114A: Death, Memorial, and Immortality in Biblical Literature
Jacqueline Vayntrub (MW 3:30-4:50)
Surveys biblical concepts of death in its social, historical, and literary context. Topics include human mortality and divine immortality, dying as a social process, the afterlife and the 'soul', and communication with the dead.

NEJS 117B: Dead Sea Scrolls
Jacqueline Vayntrub (TTh 5-6:20)
Prerequisite: NEJS 10a or a strong knowledge of biblical Hebrew.
Studies in the literature of Qumran texts, with particular attention to the exegetical literature.

NEJS 132B: Against the Apocalypse: Jewish Responses to the Holocaust
Laura Jockusch (MWTh 11-11:50)
Provides an overview on the multifaceted Jewish responses to the Nazi destruction of European Jews in the years 1945-1961. Familiarizing students with Jews' historical, legal, cultural, political, religious and commemorative reactions to the Holocaust, it refutes the unwarranted claim of a postwar Jewish silence.

NEJS 142A: Modern History of East European Jewry
ChaeRan Freeze (TF 9:30-10:50)
A comprehensive survey of the history (economic, sociopolitical, and religious) of the Jewish communities in Eastern Europe from the middle of the eighteenth century until World War II, with emphasis placed on the Jews of Poland and Russia.

NEJS 150A: The Jews in Weimar and Nazi Germany
Laura Jockusch (MWTh 10-10:50)
Explores the history of the German Jewish community in the years 1918-1945, a period characterized by the dramatic change from the solid social, professional and cultural integration of the Jews into German society to their disfranchisement, discrimination, and ultimate destruction.

NEJS 152A: Jerusalem: Holy and Contested
Walker Robins (TF 12:30-1:50)
Traces the development of Jerusalem from a small Jebusite stronghold to a modern metropolis, along the way exploring the many societies, cultures, and, of course, religions that have shaped and been shaped by the holy city.

NEJS 155A: Maimonides: A Jewish Thinker in the Islamic World
Jonathan Decter (TTh 2-3:20)
A study of the life, world, and thought of Moses Maimonides, the most significant Jewish intellectual of the Islamic world. This course traces his intellectual output in philosophy and Judaism, from its beginning in Islamic Spain to the mature works produced in Morocco and Egypt, in the context of the Arabic-Islamic milieu. Half of the course is dedicated to studying his Guide of the Perplexed, a Judeo-Arabic work that engages the demands of revealed religion and philosophical rationalism.

NEJS 160A: Liberal Judaism through the Lens of the Prayer Book
David Ellenson (T 6:30-9:20)
Prerequisite: Basic knowledge of prayer book Hebrew.
Special one-time offering.
Modern liberal Jews have expressed their approaches to Judaism in their liturgical creations. This course will study their prayer books so as to trace the growth and development of non-Orthodox varieties of Judaism in the modern period.

NEJS 160B: The Zionist Idea: Sources, Advocates and Critics
David Ellenson (TTh 5-6:20)
Special one-time offering.
Provides an overarching survey of the Zionist ideal from its inception to the present. The impact Zionism has had upon modern Jewish identity and thought among Jews and Gentiles alike will be explored.

NEJS 162A: American Judaism
Jonathan Sarna (MW 3:30-4:50)
American Judaism from the earliest settlement to the present, with particular emphasis on the various streams of American Judaism. Judaism's place in American religion and comparisons to Judaism in other countries.

NEJS 169B: From Sunday Schools to Birthright: History of American Jewish Education
Jonathan Krasner (Th 2-4:50)
Empowers students to articulate a reality-based, transformative vision of Jewish education that is grounded in an appreciation for the history and sociology of American Jewish education. It will familiarize students with and contextualize the present Jewish educational landscape, through the use of historical case studies and current research, encouraging students to view the field from an evolutionary perspective. The seminar will address Jewish education in all its forms, including formal and informal settings (e.g., schools, camps, youth groups, educational tourism).

NEJS 174A: Minorities and Others in Israeli Literature and Culture
Ilana Szobel (TTh 3:30-4:50)
Taught in Hebrew.
An exploration of poetics and identity in modern Hebrew literature. By offering a feminist and psychoanalytic reading of various Hebrew texts, this seminar explores questions of personal and national identity, otherness, visibility, and marginality in the Israeli context.
NEJS 183B: Global Jewish Literature
Ellen Kellman  (MWTh 1-1:50)
May not be taken for credit by students who took NEJS 171a in prior years. Introduces important works of modern Jewish literature, graphic fiction, and film. Taking a comparative approach, it addresses major themes in contemporary Jewish culture, interrogates the "Jewishness" of the works and considers issues of language, poetics, and culture significant to Jewish identity.

NEJS 184B: Disability in Israeli Literature, Film, and the Arts
Ilana Szobel (TTh 2-3:20)
Explores representations of disability within Hebrew and Israeli culture. By focusing on literature, film, dance, and visual art, it pursues various applications of physical, mental, and emotional disability experiences and theories to Zionist, Jewish-Israeli narratives and rhetoric.

NEJS 186A: Introduction to the Qur’an
Suleyman Dost  (MW 2-3:20)
Traces the history of the Qur’an as text, its exegesis, and its role in interreligious polemics, law, theology, and politics. Examines the role of the Qur’an in Islamic teachings and its global impact.

NEJS 200A: Muhammad: From Early Muslim Accounts to Modern Biographies
Suleyman Dost  (MWTh 11-11:50)
Studies the life of Muhammad based upon the earliest biographical accounts and the academic analyses in both Islamic and non-Islamic sources, accompanied by an examination of his legacy in different aspects of Islam, such as Shi’ism and Sufism.
