Note: HBRW 123a, 123b, 143a, 143b, if used to fulfill the requirement for section A, cannot be counted for the requirement in section C.

HBRW 123a, 123b, 143a or 143b, 146a, 161b, 164b, 166b, 167b, 170a may satisfy the writing intensive requirement. Not all of the courses are given in any one year. Please consult the Course Schedule each semester. Courses that satisfy the requirement in a particular semester are designated "wi" in the Course Schedule for that semester. Students may double count these courses for requirements in sections A-C.

NOTE. By departmental rule, a maximum of two semester course credits for courses taken at other universities may be accepted toward the minor in Hebrew language and Literature. Each course transferred from another university must have the approval of the Hebrew program in order to be acceptable for credit toward the minor requirements. This rule applies to courses completed at other institutions, whether in the United States or abroad. Students are encouraged to seek advance approval from the Hebrew program's advisor for all courses intended for transfer credit. For courses taken in Israeli universities, one Brandeis semester credit will be given for a three-hour-per-week-one semester course; a two-semester, two-hour-per week course; or two, two hour, one-semester courses. Credit is not granted for Ulpan courses.

Students are encouraged to declare their interest in the Hebrew minor by the end of their junior year.

Double Counting

No more than two courses that count for the IMES or NEJS major or minor, or the Yiddish and East European Jewish Culture minor, may count toward the HBRW minor.

REMEMBER:

If you have any questions, see your advisor or contact Professor Vardit Ringvald, head of the Hebrew Department, at x62979, ASAC 326, or ringvald@brandeis.edu, as soon as possible.
