The Research Circle on Democracy and Cultural Pluralism invites applications from students in the Social Sciences and Humanities for Democracy-related summer internship grants. The Circle may award as many as three summer internships of $3,500 each. Internships must involve work directly related to the mission of the Research Circle, as defined on our website at http://www.brandeis.edu/departments/politics/researchcircle/index.html.

Applications must include a.) a clear statement of the work to be carried out during the internship, how it addresses the mission of the Research Circle, and whether/how much funding will be provided by the sponsoring organization; b.) a copy of the letter or email to the applicant from the organization establishing that the internship has been secured; and, c.) a letter/email of recommendation from a member of the Brandeis faculty sent directly to Professor Burg.

Documents are to be sent to Professor Steven L. Burg, via Cheryl Hansen, administrator of the program (chansen@brandeis.edu).

The DEADLINE for applications is Monday, April 28.
