Employment Opportunity

Brandeis University

The Department of Romance Studies seeks

Part-Time Lecturer in French

to teach up to five language courses during the 2016–2017 academic year

This position requires proven, effective teaching skills, at least an MA, and native or near-native competency in French.

MA required in language, literature, culture, and/or foreign language education; all candidates must have documentation necessary to work in the United States. Preference will be given to candidates with knowledge of and expertise in proficiency-based and/or content-based assessment and instruction as well as the ability to teach in the University’s general education program.

Please send hard copies of application letter, CV, three letters of recommendation, statement of philosophy of language teaching, evidence of teaching ability, and relevant course materials to:

Professor Hollie Harder
Department of Romance Studies
Brandeis University, Mailstop 024
PO Box 549110
Waltham, Massachusetts 02454-9110

Telephone: 781-736-3232

First consideration will be given to candidates whose applications are received by April 12, 2016.

Brandeis University is an equal opportunity employer, committed to building a culturally diverse intellectual community, and strongly encourages applications from women and minority candidates.