YOSHUA OKÓN
Artist Talk

Monday, Nov. 30, 2015; 3:30-4:50 PM
Goldman Schwartz 115

Yoshua Okón is a Mexican artist whose videos blur the lines between documentary, reality, and fiction, creating sociological examinations that ask viewers to contemplate uncomfortable situations and circumstances.

For more information contact Christine Dunant at cdunant@brandeis.edu

Cosponsored by Latino and Latin American Studies (LALS)