

Statement in Support of Diversity

The Department of Romance Studies would like to express its support for the recent calls for diversity as it does for all efforts to achieve diversity in racial, linguistic, cultural, economic, sexual terms.

We as a department are committed to being part of any effort toward this goal. We will strive to do this every day in our hiring practices, in the issues we teach, and in the way we relate to the students.