Spring 205 Course Outline

All the readings below are posted on the Spring 2015 Latte site.

January 22:

The Department colloquium titled “The Rise of China in the Global Art Market: A Global Field Analysis” is from 2-3:20pm and we will meet from 3:30-5pm

- Larissa Buchholz (Harvard University), the colloquium speaker, will be with us in class. Please read the prospectus/summary of her book The Global Rules of Art as well as her article forthcoming in Sociological Review, “What is a global field?”

February 5:

Writing for social scientists…getting it done

Student presentation: Alex V

February 26:

Sampling and situating

Student presentation: Thomas

March 12:

The Department colloquium titled, “Dealing in Desire: Asian Ascendancy, Western Decline and the Hidden Currencies of Global Sex Work” is from 2-3:20pm and we will meet from 3:30-5pm

- Kimberly Hoang (Boston College), the colloquium speaker, will be with us in class. Please read Hoang, Kimberly Kay. 2014. “Flirting with Capital: Negotiating Perceptions of Pan-Asian Ascendancy and Western Decline in Global Sex Work.” Social Problems. 61(4): 507-529.
March 26

Authorship
  • Bird, Stephanie J. “Authorship” Part of the CITI Training in the Basic Course on Social and Behavioral Responsibilities Conduct of Research.

Student presentation by: Nick

April 16:

The Department colloquium titled, “Cultural Rights: The New Human Rights Frontier” is from 2-3:20pm and we will meet from 3:30-5pm

  • Helle Porsdam (University of Copenhagen), the colloquium speaker, will be with us in class. Please read her article “Intellectual Property Rights” just published in the Sage Handbook of Human Rights.

April 30

End of semester dinner at my house (177 Derby Street, West Newton MA. Cell: 617-417-8413). Lets meet there at 5pm.