Should Where You Live Determine If You Live?

Medical Relief in Peru

Follow-Up Activities

1. Enroll in courses in the Health: Science, Society, and Policy Department.

2. Volunteer abroad in underdeveloped countries to help alleviate health inequities.

3. Participate in fundraisers on and off campus to aide medical relief efforts in other countries.

4. Read a book about health inequalities (i.e. Health and Inequality by Sarah Curtis; The Great Escape: Health, Wealth, and the Origins of Inequality by Angus Deaton; Health Inequality: An Introduction to Concepts, Theories, and Methods by Mel Bartley)

5. Attend other events that seek to promote awareness of issues in health care, both in and out of the United States.
