Get involved! The Brandeis community is invited to organize an event during ‘DEIS Impact, Brandeis University’s annual festival of social justice. Lead a discussion, host a speaker, arrange a seminar, screen a film, stage a play — or come up with something different!

Launch Party/Info Session
Thursday, Sept. 4, 2014, 4:00 PM
Atrium, Mandel Center
For the Humanities
What’s YOUR social justice? Learn how to organize and obtain funding for a ‘DEIS Impact event. Social justice-themed refreshments will be served: vegetarian, kosher, organic, fair trade, local and eco-friendly.

Proposals and Funding Requests Due
Friday, Oct. 17, 2014, noon
For more information:
Marci McPhee, mcphee@brandeis.edu
Sneha Walia, swalia@brandeis.edu

Keynote with Alan Khazei
Tuesday, Feb. 3, 2015, 7:30 PM
Levin Ballroom
Keynote with Alan Khazei, co-founder of City Year, CEO and founder of Be The Change Inc., and author of “Big Citizenship: How Pragmatic Idealism Can Bring Out the Best in America.” Khazei will speak about empowering citizens to make a difference.