

THE ALL NEW INTERDISCIPLINARY MINOR

CASTCREATIVITY, the ARTS, and SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION

The Peacebuilding and the Arts Program and the CAST minor will present
A Mini-Festival of Creativity, the Arts, and Social Transformation

Friday, April 24th: 12 p.m. – 4 p.m.

Multi-Purpose Room, Shapiro Campus Center

A part of the Leonard Bernstein Festival of the Creative Arts

12:00 p.m – 1:45 p.m.

Acting Together on the World Stage: "Asking Toward the Light"

Screening of the award-winning, Brandeis-produced, hour-long documentary, Acting Together on the World Stage: Performance and the Creative Transformation of Conflict, featuring performances from conflict regions around the world, followed by conversation with film director Allison Lund, Associate Professor Thomas King, Director of the Peacebuilding and the Arts program Cynthia Cohen, and musician and cultural worker Jane Sapp about shadow and light in the film and the world.

1:50 p.m. – 2:10 p.m.

Info Session about the CAST minor: Q&A with Faculty and Students

CAST faculty members Cynthia Cohen and Thomas King as well as students in the CAST minor will be available to answer any questions about enrolling in the minor. Come learn about the inter-disciplinary nature of the minor as well as the courses and opportunities available to students who choose to pursue it!

2:15 p.m – 4:00 p.m.

Opening Eyes, Ears and Hearts: Performing Oral Histories

Students from the Introduction to Creativity, the Arts and Social Transformation class share scenes, poems, songs and images based on oral history interviews with people different from themselves. Come prepared to listen, look, and, if you like, sing and dance as well! Hosted by Stacy Finley '15; curated by Ryan Millis '15 and Rachel Geller '18.

Food and light refreshments will be served!

