Aida Yuen Wong of Brandeis University is curating the work of Vincent Huang at the Tuvalu National Pavilion at the 2017 Venice Biennale. Come to these lectures to learn about ways to advance sustainability through historical re-thinking, meet the artist, and get informed about eco-aesthetics and the impact of climate change on the small Pacific island nation, Tuvalu.

Lectures on Art and Environmental Crisis

Dr. Prasenjit Duara presents

Transcendence in a Secular World: Asian Traditions and a Sustainable Future

Friday, February 3

4-5:30 pm Mandel G03

Vincent Huang, Dr. Aida Y. Wong, and Dr. Mark A. Cheetham

Discussion by Venice Biennale Artist, Curator, and Eco Art Historian

Friday, March 24

2-3:30 pm Mandel G03