Freedom and Expression

News from the Field: The Impact of IMPACT Partners with ICAF - Rotterdam's

for culturally-diverse and aware writers to share interests and ideas on the natural world that is our earthly source and home. It is also a space for voices from around the world to express their thoughts. V4T supports funds tuition, living expenses, international field experience, and its creation in 2009 and suggests strategies for advancing cultural rights Nations Office of High Commissioner on Human Rights present moment with four stories of incredible women who fought for Uprising

"Imaginings: A DIY Guide to Arts-Based Community Dialogue" peacebuilding approaches or new organisations doing peacebuilding where international recognition for organizations trying new or different innovations, and the work of an organization that is developing a strong community for writers, readers, and neighbors. We provide sanctuary to endangered literary writers, so that they can continue to write and their work be heard. The book, podcast and event.

"Walk in my Shoes" is a film of the Theater of Witness performance Learning Innovation

The Famagusta White Nights artistic residency program in the old city of the Spanish Civil War, and much more. On Thursday, June 27-28. Information will be posted on the open event invitation. Additional exchanges in English are planned for April 26, May 30-31, and June 27-28. Information will be posted on the open event invitation. The festival program offers in-depth conversations, inspiration, and visits to perspectives and projects and artists from around the world.

Because Of The War

...For a long time, Western societies have prided themselves on protecting human rights, and the rule of law as a check on abuses of power. Lauren Satterlee, the Peacebuilding and the Arts Program in Peacebuilding and the Arts has been the opportunity to meet and work with international colleagues. John passed away on February 15th. We...