

FACULTY RECRUITMENT

The Economics Department at Brandeis University seeks to fill three faculty positions for fall 2008. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the positions are filled, with priority given to applications received by November 15, 2007. Department representatives will attend the January 2008 ASSA meetings in New Orleans. Brandeis University is an equal opportunity employer, committed to building a culturally diverse intellectual community, and strongly encourages applications from women and minority candidates.

Assistant Professor, Macroeconomics and Monetary Economics

The Economics Department invites applications for a tenure-track appointment in macroeconomics at the assistant professor level. We welcome applicants with research interests in applied macroeconomic fields including but not limited to growth, business cycle analysis, money and banking, time series analysis, and international economics. We seek candidates capable of excellence both in research and in teaching undergraduate, master's, and doctoral courses in macroeconomics and related fields. Candidates should submit a cover letter, CV, three letters of recommendation, and research papers to Junior Faculty Search, c/o Nicole Haefner, MS 021, Department of Economics, Brandeis University, Waltham, MA 02454-9110.

Susan and Barton Winokur Chair in Economics and Women's and Gender Studies

The Economics Department and the Women's and Gender Studies Program invite applications for the Susan and Barton Winokur Chair. We seek an established scholar whose research and teaching will support the missions of both programs and whose accomplishments are consistent with an appointment at the tenured associate or full professor level. We welcome applicants with expertise in areas including but not limited to economic development, labor economics, demography, economics of discrimination, and economics of the family. The successful candidate will have a superior publication record, evidence of excellent teaching, and the ability to supervise graduate research. Candidates should send a cover letter, CV, samples of recent scholarship, and the names of at least three references to Winokur Chair Search, c/o Kathryn Dalton, MS 082, Brandeis University, Waltham, MA 02454-9110.

Senior Lecturer, Undergraduate Teaching and Advising

The Economics Department invites applications for a full-time, renewable non-tenure-track faculty position at the rank of senior lecturer for undergraduate teaching and advising. Applicants should have a Ph.D. in economics and evidence of at least three years of successful full-time undergraduate teaching in courses such as principles of economics, intermediate microeconomics, intermediate macroeconomics, statistics for economics, and econometrics. We are particularly interested in candidates with demonstrated skill in student advising. Candidates should send a cover letter, CV, and three letters of recommendation to Senior Lecturer Search, c/o Karen Muise, MS 021, Brandeis University, Waltham, MA 02454-9110.
