IMPORTANT — Changes to requirements for Master of Science in Health and Medical Informatics, effective Fall 2019 Session 1.

After a recent industry review, Graduate Professional Studies is introducing changes to the program requirements for the Master of Science in Health and Medical Informatics degree. What you need to know:

- Students already admitted into the Master of Science in Health and Medical Informatics degree prior to March 13, 2019 must follow the program requirements under which they were admitted. These requirements are outlined below.

- Students who applied to the program after March 13, 2019 will follow the new program requirements posted on the Master of Science in Health and Medical Informatics page for current students.

Please contact your student advisor with any questions or concerns.

Program Requirements for Health and Medical Informatics students admitted prior to March 13, 2019.

Required Courses

- RHIN 110 Perspectives on Health/Medical Information Systems
- RHIN 115 Health Data and Electronic Health Records (EHRs)
- RHIN 120 Health/Medical Information Systems Security
- RHIN 125 Data and Decision Support for Health Informatics
- RHIN 160 Legal Issues in Health and Medical Informatics
- RHIN 170 Clinical Business Issues in Health Informatics

Elective Courses

Choose 4 elective courses

- RBIF 111 R for Biomedical Informatics
- RHIN 126 Advanced Healthcare Data Analytics
- RHIN 130 Healthcare Delivery in the U.S.
- RHIN 150 Emerging Technologies in Health/Medical Informatics
- RHIN 180 Strategic Application of IT in Healthcare
- RHIN 185 Population Health Informatics
- RHIN 190 Advanced HMI Systems Security and Risk Management
- RHIN 290 Special Topics in Health and Medical Informatics
- RMGT 110 Organizational Leadership and Decision Making