

Master of Science in Information Technology Management Program Changes

Master of Science in Information Technology Management Core/Elective Requirements – Prior to February 15, 2012

Required Courses

RPJM 101 Foundations of Project Management

RMGT 101 Perspectives on Information Technology

RMGT 102 Strategic Information Technology: Operational Strategy

RMGT 103 Strategic Information Technology: Organizational Strategy

RMGT 110 Organizational Leadership and Decision Making

RCOM 102 Professional Communications

Elective Courses

Students may take four electives from any of the programs currently offered by the Division of Graduate Professional Studies. Students must meet any course prerequisite for any elective course they choose as noted in the course description.

Master of Science in Information Technology Management Core/Elective Requirements -- Effective February 16, 2012

Required Courses

Please note that both Foundations of Project Management and Perspectives on Information Technology may be taken. Only one of these courses may be used to satisfy a requirement and the other may satisfy an elective.

RPJM 101 Foundations of Project Management OR RMGT 101 Perspectives on Information Technology

RMGT 102 Strategic Information Technology: Operational Strategy

RMGT 103 Strategic Information Technology: Organizational Strategy

RMGT 110 Organizational Leadership and Decision Making

RCOM 102 Professional Communications

RVTM 110 Management of Virtual and Global Teams

Elective Courses

Students may take four electives from any of the programs currently offered by the Division of Graduate Professional Studies. Students must meet any course prerequisite for any elective course they choose as noted in the course description.