Especially for International Students . . .

Do you sometimes wonder where in the world you are? Who are these crazy Americans and why do they do things the way they do?

Join us at a series of workshops that we hope will help you understand American culture and Brandeis University better!

Navigating the American Classroom: What is going on here?
Friday, September 19th: 5pm at the Heller School.
Monday, September 29th: 5pm in the Graduate Student Center, Kutz.

Navigating the American Health Care System: Where do I go when I’m sick?
Wednesday, October 1st: 12pm in the Graduate Student Center, Kutz.

Navigating American Dating: Does s/he like me? How do I know?
Tuesday, October 14th: 5pm in the Graduate Student Center, Kutz.

Navigating American Holidays: Who is Santa Claus? Why do we trick or treat?
Wednesday, October 29th: 5pm in the Graduate Student Center, Kutz.

Navigating the American Workplace: What should I wear?
Spring semester, date and time to be determined.

Space is limited so RSVP and indicate which workshop you plan to attend to: workshop@brandeis.edu
A light meal will be provided.

Sponsored by the Office of Graduate Students Affairs