TITLE OF PROJECT: Jewish Feminisms and Legal Theory (Undergraduate / Graduate Student Project)

PROJECT INFORMATION
HBI Director, Lisa Fishbayn Joffe, is developing a new course on Jewish Feminism with a particular focus on Jewish feminist approaches to law and legal interpretation. She seeks an intern with an interest in Jewish studies, law, women's history, the history of the women's movement, feminist theory or related fields, to work on the creation of a syllabus and annotated bibliography.

PROFILE OF APPROPRIATE CANDIDATE
- Course work in Law, Women and Gender Studies, History, Sociology, or related fields
- Excellent research skills
- Excellent writing skills
- Creativity
- Demonstrated initiative.
- Strong organizational skills.