Building pathways to sustainable peace in Sudan:

WHY WE CAN’T WAIT

Monday, March 22
5:30pm
Brandeis University
Heller G-2

Join representatives of My Sister’s Keeper as they discuss their work in Southern Sudan and their efforts to help local women build pathways to sustainable peace and development. My Sister’s Keeper has been partnering with resourceful and resilient Sudanese women since 2001.

An event of the Social Justice Leadership Series, a cooperative effort of the International Center for Ethics, Justice and Public Life and the Schuster Center for Investigative Journalism

Refreshments Will Be Served