

Past issues of Disability Studies Quarterly are available for $10.00 each which includes first class postage within the US. There is an additional charge for mailing outside the US.

Please specify the theme of the issue and the volume and issue number. Your request with a check made out to Friends of the Howe Library should be mailed to Howie Baker, DSQ, MS #044, Brandeis University, Waltham, MA 02254-9110.

The Winter issue of each volume is on general disability issues. For questions about back issues and orders write to: Howie Baker <baker@brandeis.edu>

The Samuel Gridley Howe Library in Waltham, Massachusetts, is the repository for past issues of Disability Studies Quarterly. The papers and books of Irving Kenneth Zola as well as the books, papers, and manuscripts of Rosemary and Gunnar Dybwad are also deposited there. Bonnie Stecher is the librarian at the Howe Library. The Library is available for research into all aspects of disability.

Disability Studies Quarterly

Technology (October 1984);

Developmental Disabilities (January 1985);
Aging and Disability (April 1985);
Work and Related Disability Policies (Summer 1985);

Women, Disability, and Gender-Related Issues (Spring 1986);
Media Depictions (Summer 1986);
Psychological Issues (Fall 1986);

Baby Doe and Other Neonatal Issues (Spring 1987);
International Comparative Issues in Disability (Summer 1987);
Teaching Disability Studies (Fall 1987);

Self-Help and Independent Living (Spring 1988);
Historical Aspects of Disability (Summer 1988);
School-Age Children and Disability (Fall 1988);

The Experience of Illness and Disability (Spring 1989);
Gender and Disability: Sexuality Reproduction Issues (Summer 1989);
Communications Technology & Hearing Impairment Issues (Fall 1989);

Cross-Cultural - Comparative II (Spring 1990);
Disability Demographics (Summer 1990);
Media Depictions (Fall 1990);

Bioethics (Spring 1991);
Disability Policy (Summer 1991);
Caregiving and Personal Assistance (Fall 1991);

The Body (Spring 1992);
Politics of Disability (Summer 1992);
Assistive Technology (Fall 1992);

Rethinking Mental Illness from the Inside (Spring 1993);

Genetics (Summer 1993); Young Children (Fall 1993);

Disability Studies Revisited (Spring 1994);
National Health Care Reform (Summer 1994);
AIDS (Fall 1994);

Media III (Spring 1995).

Summer 1995, 15(3): Religion, Spirituality, and Disability (Fred Hafferty)
Fall 1995, 15(4): Disability Culture (Steve Brown)

Winter 1996, 16(1): generic
Spring 1996, 16(2): Disability and Ethnicity (Elaine Makas)
Summer 1996, 16(3): Developmental Disabilities (Phil Ferguson)
Fall 1996, 16(4): New Economics of Disability (Corinne Kirchner)

Winter 1997, 17(1): generic
Spring 1997, 17(2): Disability History (Paul Longmore)
Summer 1997, 17(3): Children and Parents (Barbara Altman)
Fall 1997, 17(4): Disability and Literature (David T. Mitchell)

Winter 1998, 18(1): generic
Spring 1998, 18(2): Deafness (Sue Foster and Sharon Barnartt)
Summer 1998, 18(3): Disabling Heterosexism: Disability Studies
Meets Queer Theory (Shelley Tremain)
Fall 1998, 18(4): Oral History (Karen Hirsch)

Winter 1999, 19(1): generic; SDS planing meeting pieces
Spring 1999, 19(2): Disability Identity (Miriam Hertz and Carol Gill)
Summer 1999, 19(3): Changing Images of Disability: Looking Anew
at Disability Images in the Mainstream. (Petra Koppers, Research Fellow in Performing Arts, Manchester Metropolitan University, Crewe and Alsager Faculty. Freya, Cwysmsg, Trecastle, Brecon LD3 8YF, United Kingdom, <aerfen@aol.com>.
Fall 1999, 19(4): Boundary Issues in Disability Research (Dona Avery)

Winter 2000, 20(1): generic
Spring 2000, 20(2): Multiple disabling situations such as deaf blind, cp with deafness, polio with depression, environmental illness and MS (Tanis M.Doe <ud944@victoria.tc.ca>)
Summer 2000, 20(3): Hidden Disabilities (Lynn Schlesinger, <lynn.schlesinger@plattsburgh.edu>)
Fall 2000, 20(4): Disability Rights: From Childhood to Adulthood (Timothy Lillie, The University of Akron, tlillie@uakron.edu)

Winter 2001: generic
Spring 2001: Olan Farnall and Beth Haller
an issue devoted to advertising and people with disabilities Summer 2001: Anthropology and Disability Studies (Russell P.
Shuttleworth and Devva Kasnitz)
Fall 2001: Disability Geography (Michael L. Dorn Department of Geography, University of Kentucky)

Winter 2002: generic

Spring 2002: Counseling, Therapy, and Emancipatory Praxis

(Deborah Marks, Centre Psychotherapeutic Studies, Sheffield University, 16
Claremont Crescent, Sheffield, UK S10 2TA)

Summer 2002: Sexuality and Disability (Linda R. Mona lead editor and Devva Kasnitz)

Fall 2002: Disability Culture II (Steve Brown)

Winter 2003: generic

Spring 2003: Disability and the life course (Mark Priestley, Disability Research Unit, University of Leeds, LEEDS LS2 9JT UK)

Summer 2003: Post-Secondary Educational Supports for Students with Disabilities (Robert Stodden and Peter Dowick)