A Parent’s Guide to Special Education
http://www.fcsn.org/parentguide/pgintro.html
A joint publication of the Federation for Children with Special Needs (http://fcsn.org/index.php) and the Massachusetts Department of Education (http://www.doe.mass.edu/), this publication is meant to be a resource for parents and the organizations who support them. There are many different formats available, and versions are published in English, Spanish and Portuguese.

Federation for Children with Special Needs http://fcsn.org/index.php
Provides information, support, and assistance to parents of children with disabilities, their professional partners and their communities.

Searching for Child Care
http://www.eec.state.ma.us/ChildCareSearch/ResourceandReferral.aspx
Your local Child Care Resource & Referral Agency keeps information on all licensed and licensed-exempt programs including child care centers, family child care providers, preschools, and out of school time programs. A search can be tailored to your specific need and consultation provided on how to look for quality child care. Additional data such as age-specific vacancies, special services, financial assistance options and parenting information is also available.

The Special Education Advocacy Center (SEAC)
http://specialeducationadvocacycenter.org/
Provides free legal services for low-income parents and caregivers of children with disabilities seeking to obtain appropriate educational services for their children.

Disability Resource List
http://www.disabilityresources.org/MASSACHUSETTS.html
Connects people with and without disabilities to all types of disability resources and support.
