Differences
(Ages 4-5)

- Using poetry, this book addresses what it means to be part of a biracial family.

- This series explores human differences around the world.

- The book has photos of hats around the world.

- This book discusses the different types of houses around the world.

- Poetry describes children and their families around the world

- Portrays where and how children sleep around the world.

- The book discusses issues and feelings for children whose parents do not speak English fluently.