- A little girl with a dog named Fred describes how she takes him with her everywhere including both of her divorced parents’ homes.

- Alex, whose parents are divorced, describes his two separate homes.

- Addison describes what it is like to be a son of divorced parents.