The American Studies Program in cooperation with the President’s Office, the Department of African and African-American Studies, the English Department, the Politics Department, the Program in Religious Studies, the Schuster Institute for Investigative Journalism, and the International Center for Ethics, Justice, and Public Life invites the Brandeis University community to an evening conversation with

Robert George and Cornel West

entitled

“Liberal Learning: Open Minds and Open Debate” Modeling Productive Disagreement in an Age of Outrage

Wednesday, October 17th, at 5pm in the Sherman Function Hall, Hassenfeld Conference Center

Robert P. George is a legal scholar, political philosopher, and public intellectual who serves as the McCormick Professor of Jurisprudence and Director of the James Madison Program in American Ideals and Institutions at Princeton University. He has written or edited more than a dozen books, including Making Men Moral: Civil Liberties and Public Morality (1995) and Conscience and its Enemies: Confronting the Dogmas of Liberal Secularism (2013).

Cornel R. West is a philosopher, political activist, and public intellectual who serves as a Professor of the Practice of Public Philosophy at Harvard Divinity School and within the Department of African and African-American Studies at Harvard University. He has written or co-written more than 20 books, including Race Matters (1994) and Black Prophetic Fire (2014).

made possible through the generosity of Kent Lawrence (B.A. ’66)