

ETA BETA RHO

עברית

National Scholarship Honor Society for Students of Hebrew Language and Culture

Brandeis University

For more information or an application, please go to

<http://www.brandeis.edu/departments/hebrew/>

Or at the Hebrew Language Program
Office, ASAC 322

ETA BETA RHO

 Chapter

National Scholarship
Honor Society for Students of Hebrew
Language and Culture

Brandeis University

Purpose of Eta Beta Rho:

To recognize outstanding attainments in study of Hebrew language and literature, to stimulate study and research in this field, and to promote an understanding and appreciation of the culture of Israel.

National Sponsor:

Eta Beta Rho was founded by the National Association of Professors of Hebrew in American Institutions of Higher Learning in order to encourage high achievement in Hebrew studies. The association continues to act as sponsor for the Society and appoints a national Coordinator of Eta Beta Rho.

Applications are available online at:

<http://www.brandeis.edu/departments/hebrew/>

Or at the Hebrew Language Program Office, ASAC 324

Applications for 2012 membership are due by February 27, 2012. Please send application and transcript via mail, fax, or email to:

Eta Beta Rho

Bonit Porath

porath@brandeis.edu

If eligible, applicants will receive notification of membership via email by March 5, 2012

Executive Committee:

Elections for officers of the Executive Committee will be held next year, September 2012. The committee consists of the president (Nasi), Vice-President (Sgan-nasi), Secretary (Mazkir), and Treasurer (Gizbar). Members of the committee will vote on aspect of the p chapter of Eta Beta Rho, such as activities, events, dues, etc.

Please indicate on your application for membership if you are interested in becoming an officer Executive Committee for 2012-2013.

Presentation of new members will be held at the first meeting on March 14, of 2012 (7:00pm, location TBA). Other items on the agenda for the first meeting are:

- Welcome to the society from Vardit Ringvald, Director of Hebrew program at Brandeis University
- Possible activities and events to be held by the society
- Cooking in Hebrew

Eligibility:

1) Eligibility: Membership in this society shall be based upon scholarship. Undergraduates must have completed at least 12 credits of Hebrew with a 3.0 average, or currently be enrolled in their third semester of Hebrew. They must rank not lower than the highest 35% of their class in general scholarship and shell have completed at least three semesters of five quarters of the college courses. Graduate students are chosen from among those with at least a 3.5 average in Hebrew.

2) Honorary members may be chosen on the basis of their scholarly distinction or notable contributions to the field of Hebrew culture and literature.