PAX is proud to announce the winners of the 2017 Davis Projects for Peace Prize:

Jonathan Goldman ‘19 and Victoria St. Jean ‘19

The Right to Immigration Institute (TRII): A New Home

TRII focuses on providing representation and assistance for asylum seekers in immigration proceedings, in addition to establishing opportunities for people to become trained representatives for asylum seekers. TRII also provides resources for navigating the immigration process. With this grant, they will create a training program for undergraduate students to become accredited representatives and they will implement a citizenship program for the Waltham Public Schools.