Grace Killian & Mary Jane Eaton
3:30 – 4:50 pm
Lown 315

Come and See: The Call to Sacred Relationships

Grace Killian will speak about changing understandings of Christian missions, especially in relation to her time serving as a Global Mission Fellow in Israel, Palestine and Jordan.

Grace Killian (Brandeis ‘13) is a former Global Mission Fellow with United Methodist Global Ministries and currently pursuing a dual degree with a Master of Divinity from Harvard Divinity School and an MA in Law and Diplomacy from the Fletcher School at Tufts University.

Come and See: The Call to Sacred Relationships

Faith, Leadership, and Chronic Homelessness

Faith, Leadership, and Chronic Homelessness

Eaton will share how the church can become a tool for overcoming systemic disempowerment, bridging the gap between the housed and the unhoused, and holding hope in a broken world. www.commoncathedral.org

Rev. Mary Jane Eaton, ’96, Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), serves as Associate Minister at Common Cathedral, an outdoor church in Boston for people experiencing chronic homelessness.

Program in Religious Studies
Brandeis University
For more information, www.brandeis.edu/programs/religious

For directions to Brandeis, www.brandeis.edu/about/visiting/directions.html

Co-sponsored by the Hiatt Career Center