Research Innovation Awards 2015-2016

Andrea Acevedo, Heller
Inequalities in Adolescent Substance Abuse Treatment

Janet Boguslaw, Heller
Outsourced at Home: The impacts for Job Quality, Public Resources, and Family Well-being

Kerry A. Chase, Politics; International and Global Studies
Regulating Trade in Products that Afflict, Harm, or Kill People

Gregory Childs, History; African and Afro-American Studies; Latin American and Latino Studies
A Series of Noteworthy Things: Translating a Journal Confiscated from a Slave Rebellion

Jon A. Chilingerian, Heller
Being Better Than Average is Not Good Enough: Benchmarking Physician and Hospital Quality and Efficiency

Cynthia Cohen, International Center for Ethics, Justice and Public Life
Social Transformation through the Arts: Interdisciplinary and Cross-cultural Perspectives

Abigail Cooper, History; African and Afro-American Studies
The South Moved Within Itself: Mapping Black Migration in America after Slavery

Jane Ebert, Brandeis IBS
Effects of schedule predictability and interruption on exercise intentions and behavior in midlife working parents

ChaeRan Y. Freeze, Near Eastern and Judaic Studies, History and Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies
An Eye for an Eye: Jewish Terrorism and Romance in the Russian Socialist Revolutionary Movement

Charles Golden, Anthropology; Latin American and Latino Studies
Preliminary Investigations of the Ancient Maya Capital of Sak T'zi’

Karen V. Hansen, Sociology; Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies
Mentoring for Leadership: Teachers and Students at a Working-Class High School
Timothy J. Hickey, Computer Science
Robert Sekuler, Psychology/Neuroscience
Engaged learning and research with interactive video games

Sophia A. Malamud, Language and Linguistics; Anthropology; Computer Science
Developing a community resource: Russian Acquisition Corpus

Michael Marr, Biology/Molecular; Cell Biology
Single cell analysis of stress inducible transcription

Nidhiya Menon, Economics; Brandeis IBS; Heller
The Impact of Minimum Wages on Child Labor: Evidence from India

Tatjana Meschede, Heller
Homeless Families: Can Targeted Workforce Development Improve Employment and Housing Outcomes?

Debarshi K. Nandy, Brandeis IBS
Cracking the Economics of Fracking

Dan Oprian, Biochemistry
Optogenetic Tools for Control of Cyclic Nucleotides in the CNS

Kristin Parker, Rose Art Museum
Heritage in Danger: Preservation in Times of Conflict

Raphael Schoenle, Economics; Brandeis IBS
Can Subjective Life Expectancies Explain Life-Cycle Puzzles?

Nancy J Scott, Fine Arts; Romance Studies
Collecting J.M.W. Turner in America: Auctions and Audiences

Sara Shostak, Sociology, Health: Science, Society and Policy, Heller, and Environmental Studies
Developing Outcome Measures for Urban Agriculture in MA

Harleen Singh, Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies; South Asian Studies; German, Russian, and Asian Languages and Literature; Comparative Literature
Half an Independence: Women, Violence, and Modern Lives in India

Maureen Stewart, Heller
Developing a mobile app for mental health and substance use issues

Ilana Szobel, Near Eastern and Judaic Studies
Flesh of My Flesh: Sexual Violence in Hebrew Literature and Israeli Culture

Stephen D. Van Hooser, Biology
Dense electrode arrays for studying neural networks

Casey Wade, Chemistry
Christine Thomas, Chemistry
Bimetallic Complexes as Single Molecule Magnets

Pu Wang, German, Russian and Asian Languages and Literature; East Asian Studies
Marx Enters the Temple of Confucius: Literary Representations of National Antiquity in Revolutionary China