Objectives

The Spanish program deals with Hispanic and Latino studies. Courses promote not only communication skills, but also an understanding of the various cultural contexts through interdisciplinary explorations of texts. Literature, film, history, politics, gender studies, etc. lead to some depth of understanding of issues facing Hispanic communities at home and abroad. Increasingly, technology (uses of the Internet, Webpage design, Power-Point presentations, etc.) plays a part in these explorations.

Students are prepared to pursue careers in a wide range of fields where effective communication is essential, including those in which they will have contact with Spanish speakers and/or Hispanic cultures, in this country or globally. Students often go on to pursue graduate studies in professional fields [law, medicine, business, international relations, education, social services, etc.], in which their language and technological skills will make them especially attractive to employers, and which will enable them to succeed in a competitive environment.

How to Become a Major

Students considering a Spanish major should complete the language requirement as soon as possible, preferably by the end of their first year at Brandeis. They are then advised to take SPAN 105a before beginning the sequence of Spanish language (SPAN 106b or SPAN 108a) and literature, including at least one but no more than two of the following: SPAN 109a, 110a, or 111b. For a total of nine courses to complete the major, students take up to six electives numbered above 111, and in the fall of the senior year, the required Senior Seminar (SPAN 198a). Please note: Many Spanish majors and minors choose to study in Spain or Latin America for all or part of their junior year. Normally, any full-credit Spanish or Latin American literature course taken abroad will count toward the Spanish major up to a maximum of four courses for majors and two courses for minors. Students interested in learning more about the Spanish major or minor are encouraged to speak with the undergraduate advising head in Spanish.

How to Fulfill the Language Requirement

The Foreign Language Requirement is met by successful completion of a third semester course [numbered in the 30s] in the language program.

How to Choose a Course at Your Level

To choose the appropriate course for your level, you will need to take a Placement Exam. It is a self-graded exam that you can access online at www.brandeis.edu/registrar/spantest.html. After finishing the exam, you will choose the course that seems best to fit your needs and then complete a questionnaire on line. A faculty member will then contact you to discuss the courses that you have chosen.

If you have a score of 620 or above on the Spanish SAT II, or a score of 4 or 5 on the Spanish AP exam, these scores will automatically fulfill the language requirement, and you are eligible to enroll in 100-level courses.
