French and Francophone Studies

Objectives

As Michel de Montaigne wrote, “Learning to speak, read, write, and think a new language teaches us, to knock off our rough corners by rubbing our minds against other people’s.” The French program puts Montaigne’s maxim to use by allowing students to study the historical development of French culture in Europe and Francophone culture throughout the world. The cultural capital represented by French language and culture played a crucial role both in the creation of a French national identity and in the response to it in many Francophone countries and in modern France today. The French curriculum is designed to teach students to express themselves clearly and effectively in written and oral French, as well as to acquaint them with the historical depth and geographical breadth of literary and cultural expression in French.

How to Become a Major or a Minor

Students considering a French major should complete the language requirement as soon as possible. Students who complete a 30-level French course or earn an AP French score of 4 or an SAT II score of 620 in French are advised to enroll in FREN 104b and/or FREN 105a. Students with an AP French score of 5 should enroll in FREN 105a or FREN 106b. Normally, students should take FREN 106b, and FREN 110a, and/or FREN 111a before taking courses numbered above FREN 111. Students interested in learning more about the major, the minor, or about studying abroad are encouraged to speak with the undergraduate advising head. Please note: many French majors and minors choose to study abroad for all or part of their junior year.

How to Fulfill the Language Requirement

The foreign language requirement is met by successful completion of a third semester course (numbered in the 30s) in the language program.

How to Choose a Course at Your Level

To choose the appropriate course, you need to take a placement exam. It is a self-graded exam that you can access online at www.brandeis.edu/registrar/frentest.html. After finishing the exam, complete the questionnaire online. A faculty member will then contact you to discuss your placement. Students who fail to take the placement exam will not be permitted to enroll. If you have a score of 620 or above on the French SAT II, or a score of 4 or 5 on the French AP exam, these scores will automatically fulfill the language requirement, and you are eligible to enroll in 100-level courses. See above under “How to Become a Major or a Minor.”

See Romance Studies.

Requirements for the Major

The major consists of nine semester courses:

A. FREN 106b (The Art of Composition).

B. FREN 110a [Cultural Representations] or FREN 111a [The Republic].

C. Six additional French courses numbered above 111a.

D. FREN 97a (Senior Essay). After completing FREN 97a in the fall, students who have a 3.5 GPA in French courses seeking to fulfill requirements for departmental honors can petition to take FREN 99b, the senior thesis, in the spring. Honors are awarded on the basis of cumulative excellence in all courses taken in the major, including the senior thesis.

Students seeking credit toward the French major for French courses cross-listed under European cultural studies should do all reading and writing assignments in French. [The abbreviation FECS denotes French and European cultural studies courses.] Majors may receive credit for the major for related courses taken outside the department with written permission of the undergraduate advising head.

All students pursuing a French major will be assigned an advisor in the department.
Requirements for the Minor

The minor consists of five semester courses:

A. FREN 106b (The Art of Composition).

B. FREN 110a (Cultural Representations) or FREN 111a (The Republic).

Students enrolling for the first time in a French course at Brandeis must take the online placement exam www.brandeis.edu/registrar/frentest.html.

C. Three additional courses in French numbered above 100. One of these may be an FECS (French and European cultural studies) course, provided that all reading and writing assignments are completed in French. Normally, two courses from study abroad will be accepted toward the minor.

All students pursuing a French minor will be assigned an advisor in the department.

Special Notes Relating to Undergraduates

Students may take two 30-level French courses for credit with permission of the director of language programs.

Imagination, the drug experience, even madness can convey absolute meaning. We read creative journeys in prose and poetry by Balzac, Baudelaire, Rimbaud, Maria Krysinska, Senghor, and Bocanely to explore topics of good and evil, racial and gender identity, love and intimacy, spiritual faith. Usually offered every third year. Mr. Kaplan

FREN 120a The French Middle Ages: Before France Was France
[hum]
Prerequisite: FREN 106b or the equivalent, or permission of the instructor.
Before the creation of the French nation-state in the sixteenth century, what we know as France today was a tapestry of feudal and postfeudal states. The strangeness of this culture can confound modern understanding as much as many foreign cultures. Studies works such as eleventh-century hagiographies, Le Roman de la Rose, the knightly romances of Chrétien de Troyes, as well as the poetry of the troubadours, Christine de Pizan, and François Villon. Usually offered every second year. Mr. Randall

FREN 121b The Renaissance: When France Became France
[hum wi]
Prerequisite: FREN 106b or the equivalent, or permission of the instructor.
The creation of the modern nation-state in the sixteenth century was inextricably linked to the literature and art of the period. The defense of French language and culture was the battle cry of the cultural vanguard of the Renaissance. The political and religious turmoil of the period is matched only by the intensity and beauty of its artistic creations. Works studied include Rabelais's Gargantua, Montaigne's Essays, Marguerite de Navarre's Heptameron, as well as the poetry of Ronsard, du Bellay, and Louise Labé. Usually offered every second year. Mr. Randall
FREN 142b City and the Book
Prerequisite: FREN 106b or the equivalent, or permission of the instructor.
Analyzes the symbolic appearance of the city in French literature and film from the Middle Ages to the present day. The symbolic representation of the city in literature and film will be contextualized in theoretical writings by urbanists and philosophers. The symbolic and theoretical depictions of the city will be used to understand the culture in which they were produced. Usually offered every second year.
Mr. Kaplan

FECS 143a French Existentialism: An Introduction
Prerequisite: FREN 106b or the equivalent.
Open to all students. Conducted in English. Readings and essays in French for French majors.
Sartre and Camus are known as the founders of French existentialism, a philosophy of the absurd, loneliness, freedom, and responsibility. Novels, plays, and essays are read on moral commitment and on black, Jewish, female identities in light of war, colonialism, and the Holocaust. Usually offered every third year.
Mr. Kaplan

FECS 147a Jewish Identities in France since 1945
Prerequisite: FREN 106b or the equivalent, or permission of the instructor.
Open to all students. Conducted in English with readings in English translation with French originals available.
After the Holocaust, French thinkers such as Sartre, Levinas, and Memmi provided a foundation for reconstructing Jewish life. Topics include assimilation; Sephardic and Ashkenazic Jews, Muslim, black, and Jewish identity; the role of women, secularism, ethics, and religious faith. Usually offered every third year.
Mr. Kaplan

FREN 155b French Drama of the Twentieth Century
Prerequisite: FREN 106b or the equivalent, or permission of the instructor.
A study of plays corresponding to the following movements, eras, and styles: Jarry’s Ubu Roi revolutionized what could happen on stage, announcing the absurdist theater of such authors as Ionesco, Genet, and Beckett. Sartre, Camus, and Yourcenar wrote neoclassical plays in the same years. Francophone theater in the Caribbean, Quebec, and Africa (Schwarz-Bart, Farhoud, Mbila) borrowed from and adapted aesthetic principles from the French dramatists to dramatize colonial and postcolonial experiences. Students may choose to perform a play as a final class project.
Ms. Hale

FREN 165b Francophone Literature of Africa
Prerequisite: FREN 106b or the equivalent, or permission of the instructor. May be repeated for credit with permission.
