

Petition for Exemption from the language requirement in a language not taught at Brandeis

Office of the University Registrar
Kutz 124, MS 068 (781-736-2010)

If you are proficient in a language not currently taught at Brandeis University (including American Sign Language) and would like to see if you can be exempted from the language requirement on the basis of that proficiency, please complete the form below, attaching a letter to the Foreign Language Oversight Committee explaining the reasons for your petition. Please print both petition form and letter, and submit them to Ms. Gabrielle Harder, Associate Registrar, Kutz 124/Mailstop 068. (If you're not sure whether or not the language in question is taught here, please check the Brandeis University Bulletin.)

The Foreign Language Oversight Committee will review your petition and will let Ms Harder know their decisions within a week after we received the petition. Should the Committee determine that you will need to be examined in the language in question, the Committee will help you to contact a competent examiner to take the test. Only students who can show language competence at the intermediate mid level (according to the ACTFL guidelines) and academic knowledge of required grammar at this level will be exempt.

Please attach a "typed" letter with records and/or documents in support of your petition (e.g., transcripts, course descriptions). In your letter please (1) explain the reasons for your petition; and (2) describe your education in the language, formal or informal, and the level of your reading, writing, and speaking skills in the language; and be sure to complete the information and to answer the questionnaire in the attached petition form.
