

20 things you can do to celebrate the ICC's 20th Anniversary:

1. Join us for the Intercultural Center 20th Anniversary Celebration!
2. Send us a picture of you or your organization using ICC space, attending, or performing in an ICC program over the past 20 years.
3. Join in the celebration: Send a blurb or "You Tube" video expressing "What the ICC means to you." ICC20thAnniversary@brandeis.edu
4. We are creating a Video tribute to the ICC, items #2,3, and 4 would allow you to join the celebration even if you can not be with us.
5. Pass on the good news of the ICC 20th Anniversary to a friend or colleague.
6. Get to know a neighbor better.
7. Try out for Culture X!
8. Attend Culture X - April 21, 2012.
9. The ICC is a home of mutual learning. Pledge to learn about someone who is different from you.
10. Attend upcoming ICC affiliated events: APAHM, Women of Color Forum, Drag Show, K-Nite, Lunar New Year, Pride Month, &more!
11. Attend an Ally Training.
12. Attend and Ally Brown Bag Lunch.
13. Attend the 4th Annual Sexualities Research Conference - Intercultural Center – April 19, 1pm-5pm.
14. Promote acceptance and appreciation.
15. Attend the BAASA (Brandeis Asian American Student Association) 40th Anniversary Celebration event in March!
16. Model respect and be an ally when you see or hear bigotry.
17. Visit the ICC in person or on line: <http://www.brandeis.edu/studentaffairs/icc/> and <http://www.brandeis.edu/glbtc/>
18. Watch "Waiting for Superman" sponsored by City Year, Hiatt, Waltham Group, and the ICC - February 7, 6:30pm-9pm, ICC.
19. Apply to be an ICC Staff Team Member.
20. Explore the ICC's 17 student ICC organizations! Go to an event! Visit a meeting!