Student Conduct Board
Description of Member’s Role 2010-11

Overview
The Student Conduct Board is a panel that hears cases of alleged violations of University policy. It is the role of this board to determine what standards of behavior are acceptable in the Brandeis community.

Responsibilities
· Attend any training sessions as scheduled, including a monthly Board Meeting (time to be determined by members)
· Serve as an actively contributing member of the Board during scheduled hearings, whether voting or observing
· Provide support and information to the Brandeis community by taking part in educational outreach efforts, especially in conjunction with the Peer Mediator Team

Skills Developed
Members of the SCB receive theoretical and practical training on a variety of relevant topics, including community standards, academic integrity, sexual misconduct, substance abuse, conflict resolution, among others. Interpersonal and organizational skills are also strengthened through scheduled training sessions and the participation in hearings.
· Analytical and contextual thinking
· Ethical decision-making
· Interacting appropriately with confidential and sensitive information
· Active and critical listening

Qualifications
The successful candidate for a membership on the BPM team will demonstrate a clear, logical thought process and the ability to maintain objectivity regardless of previous experience. Demonstrated ability to work closely and collaboratively with peers is centrally important. Applicants should have a sense of current events on campus, and should understand the mission of the University.
