Note to Visiting Summer Students: All students requesting a parking permit are expected to comply with the University's Parking Rules and Regulations. This document is available on-line at: http://www.brandeis.edu/departments/public_safety/park2.htm. Your signature below confirms your knowledge of these rules and regulations and your willingness to abide by them.

Note to Current Brandeis Students: If you already have a permit on your vehicle from the 2008-2009 Academic Year, it remains in effect until Fall Term 2009 – you do not need to fill out this form. Parking available to students is the same during the summer as in the academic year and all parking rules and regulations are in effect throughout the summer. Infraction of parking rules will result in ticketing and charges to your academic year account. You should also note that outstanding parking fines from the academic year may result in a financial hold on your registration in the Summer School Program.

By my signature, I confirm my knowledge of the parking rules and regulations and my willingness to abide by them.
