

Giller-Sagan Prize for an Outstanding Undergraduate Women's and Gender Studies Paper

The Giller-Sagan Prize was established in 1982 by Frimi and Eli Sagan, in honor of the grandmothers of Susannah Sagan '81. Sadie Giller and Esther Sagan left the shtetl in their teens and came to America in search of a promising and complex life. In honor of these women, this prize is awarded each year to a Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies senior major or minor for their exceptional undergraduate paper.

Completed Application Includes:

- Only senior majors or minors in Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies may apply
- All paper submissions must include the Giller-Sagan coversheet
- Winner will accept the prize at the WGS commencement reception
