REQUEST FOR WRITING INTENSIVE COURSES

Please return to Rebecca Mahoney in the English Dept. (MS 023)

Note that you may now submit courses retroactively: a course you are offering this semester, or that you have offered in the past, may be submitted for consideration.

NOTE: All sections of a course must be submitted for W.I. credit if any section of the course is to be considered.

NAME _________________________________________________________________

DEPT.____________________________________ PHONE
____________________

E-MAIL _________________________

Please provide information for each course you want listed as Writing Intensive, and be sure to attach a course syllabus

Course name, number, and letter_____________________________________________

Semester and year_____________Will this course be taught regularly as WI? Yes__No___

Number of papers assigned for course, and lengths______________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Describe method(s) of writing instruction: how revisions will be included, number of conferences with instructor or teaching fellow, and which handouts on writing on the discipline will be distributed, etc.
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

NOTE: For the future, you will not need to resubmit unless there is a substantial change in the Writing Intensive component of the course.