GLUTTONY IS THE NEW STATUS QUO. Our appetite for food, power, wealth, sex, new experiences, and information is seemingly insatiable and poses increasingly greater risks to the welfare of our planet and its inhabitants. This all-media juried exhibition features work by 42 artists that explores this ravenous craving for excess and/or the consequences of indulging our endless desire for more.

GUEST JUROR: Judy Haberl, artist and professor of Sculpture at Massachusetts College of Art and Design
