Video Screening: Manufactured Landscapes
View this striking documentary on the world and work of internationally acclaimed photographer Edward Burtyński, best known for his large-scale photographs of “manufactured landscapes,” including quarries, recycling yards, factories, mines and dams. The film follows Burtyński through China, as he chronicles the effects of that country’s massive industrial revolution.

THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 4:00 PM
Writings on Insatiability: A Reading Scholars and practitioners from a range of academic and artistic disciplines will read short works they’ve written on the theme of insatiability.
